CABBIE CROOKS CAGED

Drivers robbed at knifepoint

FIVE teenagers have been locked up for a total of 29 years for a spate of knifepoint robberies on mini-cab drivers.

They held knives to cab drivers' necks as they stole property including a wedding ring and cash in 22 offences.

Gavneet Johal, 18, of Oakwood Gardens, Seven Kings, was convicted of conspiracy to rob and sentenced to three-and-a-half years on Friday, May 5 at Shanesbrook Crown Court.

Jayden Atkins, 18, of Estuary Close, Barking, was convicted of conspiracy to rob and sentenced to five-and-a-half years.

Jay Koabo, 18, of Crescent Road, Dagenham, was found guilty of conspiracy to rob and was sentenced to eight years.

Jeremy Mbwese, 19, of Cairo Road, Walthamstow, had previously admitted conspiracy to rob and was sentenced to six years.

A 17-year-old from Seven Kings, who cannot be named because of his age, admitted the same offence and was locked up for six years.

Detectives at Ilford CID launched Operation Taxa to combat the robberies between August 3 and September 29, 2015.

The robbers either threatened violence or produced a knife.

Most of the drivers were assaulted and one received a knife wound to the face.

One of the two women would book a mini-cab and order them to go to a selected location in most of incidents.

They then messaged the men so they could lay in wait.

When the taxis arrived, one of the men entered the car and subjected victims to violence and intimidation before fleeing with property and cash.

The gang got away with £2,000 cash and items such as car keys, sat navs and mobile phones.

Search warrants were executed in four London boroughs with the suspects arrested and mobile phones, sat navs and a photo of the wedding ring recovered. The ring was never found.

DC Jon Mercer, from Ilford

CID, said: "The youths responsible went to great effort planning the robberies and carefully selecting their intended victims. Lone drivers were subjected to gratuitous physical assaults whilst having a large knife held to their necks during times of darkness and in secluded areas.

"Not only did the victims lose personal items of property and cash, the psychological damage they suffered is irreparable.

"The defendants have shown no remorse and the jail term received by each not only demonstrates the gravity of their crime, but is also a reflection on their attitude towards these offences against hard-working members of the community."

Anti-social behaviour complaints lead to banning notice

TWENTY adults and young people have been banned from entering a housing development in Barking and Dagenham after complaints of anti-social behaviour.

Barking and Dagenham Council and the local police have issued a banning notice to individuals causing problems on Academy Central in Longbridge Road.

Matthew Cole, director of public health and community safety said: "We have taken this tough action with our partners as part of our determination to protect our residents' quality of life. We will push for even tougher action if necessary; this may include a civil injunction or a criminal behaviour order."

The banning notice has been sent to parents and guardians of those under 18, and where over to the adults directly involved who were all identified through CCTV.

Images showed them carrying out acts of vandalism, theft, smoking of substances believed to be cannabis and also graffiti.

Legal eagle posts to be filled by new apprentices

BARKING and Dagenham Council is set to be the first in London to hire two solicitor apprentices into its in-house legal service.

The apprentices will be recruited for a September start.

Council officials intend to target young people in the borough's schools undertaking A levels in the summer.

The apprenticeships will be delivered by City University of London.

The scheme is provided in partnership with the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives (CILEx) Law School.

Cllr Dominic Twomey, cabinet member for finance, growth and investment said: "These apprenticeships offer local youngsters the chance to professionally qualify without the burden of debt that comes with the traditional university path."

"Now that the Council is paying the apprenticeship levy, it makes sense for us to draw down funds from our apprenticeship account to create these opportunities."

"I am delighted that we are the first in London to create this opportunity."

Applications for these positions and how to apply will be available from 10 May.

The application will close on the 7 June.

Have your say on childhood obesity

ALMOST 50 per cent of children in Barking and Dagenham are overweight or obese, according to latest figures.

The shocking statistic has promoted council and NHS officials to launch a London-wide campaign.

Residents in Barking and Dagenham are being encouraged to participate in a debate about childhood obesity.

The Great Weight Debate survey asks for comments on a range of topics, such as factors that people think contribute to unhealthy weight in children, and ideas about how youngsters and their families can lead healthier lives.

Cllr Maureen Worby, cabinet member for social care and health integration, described the situation as an issue, with two in five of the borough's 10 to 11-year-olds overweight or obese.

She said: "We all want to see our borough's children have the best start in life, so I'd like to encourage as many of our residents as possible to take part in the Great Weight Debate."

The survey aims to help tackle an issue that can lead to an increased risk of long-term health conditions such as diabetes, arthritis and breathing difficulties.

To complete the survey, visit www.lbbd.gov.uk/gwd or fill it out in person at libraries before Friday, September 1.

FAMILY AFFAIR: Clare and Jacob Penfold

Mum and son to get covered in bubbles at fun charity event

A MOTHER will run through five kilometres of bubbles with her son in memory of her late mother.

Clare Penfold, 33, and Jacob, five, will skid and slide their way through the Bubble Rush at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, Stratford, on Sunday, May 21, to honour Carol Penfold.

Carol was a nurse for Saint Francis Hospice, one of four charities to benefit from donations raised by Clare. She was cared for by the hospice's end-of-life care team in 2010 before she died of breast cancer.

Clare, from Hornchurch, said: "When I was little my mum worked at the hospice and she was such a dedicated nurse and I've been to the hospice many times over the years."

"I signed up to this event because it looked like so much fun and Jacob could get involved."

"I think this event is great because it is a very positive way of showing children what they can do for charity."

FLAIR: Betty Innes

Betty raises £300 selling paintings

A NINETY-YEAR-OLD painter from Ilford has inspired staff at Saint Francis Hospice with her paintings.

Betty Innes also raised £300 for the hospice selling her work to family, friends and doctors.

She said: "I even managed to sell three of my hand-painted bags to the district nurses who came to visit me during a night callout. I've always had a creative flair and used to paint a lot before I started to lose my sight."

Hammers safe as Spurs' title hopes are left in tatters

JOB DONE!

Football

West Ham United 1
Tottenham Hotspur 0

Brian Jeeves reporting from the London Stadium

A SECOND-HALF goal from Manuel Lanzini earned West Ham an unexpected victory over Tottenham Hotspur at the London Stadium on Friday evening, securing the Hammers' Premier League status and almost certainly ending Spurs' hopes of the title.

Injury-hit West Ham went into the game unbeaten in four games, having drawn their last three, but still looking over their shoulder at the relegation places.

The Hammers were again without Andy Carroll and Michail Antonio, while Arthur Masuaku also missed out with a foot injury.

Tottenham arrived in east London off the back of a comfortable derby success over Arsenal, brimming with confidence having won each of their previous nine Premier League outings and looking to close the gap on leaders Chelsea to a single point ahead of the weekend's matches.

Spurs recalled Kyle Walker back into the starting 11, while Harry Kane was looking to add to his 21 league goals to date.

There was certainly a raucous atmosphere ringing around the London Stadium, with the Hammers faithful determined to witness their charges put a spanner in the Spurs title challenge. And the tempo went up several notches as Kane and Lanzini passed up reasonable half-chances during a frantic opening spell.

West Ham appeared to be enjoying the better of the early exchanges. Cheikhou Kouyate should have done better, nodding directly at Hugo Lloris after finding himself unchallenged.

Meanwhile, Adrian did exceptionally well to thwart Kane twice in quick succession as Spurs offered a meaningful threat of their own.

The home crowd were fuming when Lloris raced from his goal and appeared to floor Lanzini in the process of clearing, while at the other end both Toby Alderweireld and Christian Eriksen narrowly shot wide as Spurs began to turn the screw.

André Ayew fired over after Sam Byram had centred as West Ham created the first opening of the second period. Meanwhile, Adrian saved from Eriksen and Heung-Min Son as Spurs struggled for a breakthrough of their own against a Hammers backline that had displayed rather more resolve of late.

Just after the hour mark West Ham stunned the visitors. Lanzini was on hand to fire home from close range after Ayew's effort had been blocked, sending the vast majority inside the Hammers new home into frenzied celebrations.

Spurs threw on Mousa Dembele and Vincent Janssen in a desperate attempt to get back into the match.

But only a stunning save by Lloris to deny Jonathan Calleri prevented the fired-up Hammers from doubling their advantage.

Eriksen whistled a left-footed effort wide as Spurs pressed forward in the final stages. But it was all to no avail. Substitute Ashley Fletcher should have sewn the contest up with a stoppage-time attempt that drifted wide. But the home side was not to be denied arguably their most famous success during an otherwise torrid campaign at the London Stadium.

Speaking after the game, Hammers boss Slaven Bilic said: "We deserved to win, we did everything OK, we had a game plan and had a good pattern."

"You have a game plan in every game. It looks good on paper, but the way we did it was magnificent. It was a great team display in terms of character, determination, thinking about what each individual had to do."

"But to beat a team like Spurs, you need more than that and we showed quality, especially in the second half. It's a great performance, especially when you do it in such an important game for them and for us."

"The players deserve an enormous amount of praise for their performance."

Frustrated Spurs boss Mauricio Pochettino said: "I'm calm. Disappointed, of course, because we missed an opportunity to reduce the gap with Chelsea. It wasn't our best day."

West Ham are next in Premier League action on Sunday, May 14 when Liverpool are the visitors to the London Stadium (2.15pm).

O's bid painful farewell to life in the league

Blackpool 3 Leyton Orient 1
Sky Bet League Two
By Rowland Lyons at Bloomfield Road

LEYTON Orient's 112-year league status finally ended last Saturday evening after the Seasiders confirmed their play-off spot.

Neil Danns and Mark Cullen fired the hosts ahead before the interval, with Jens Janse reducing the deficit soon after the interval. Andy Taylor ensured the points stayed in Lancashire with a decisive strike.

In what was developing into a one-sided encounter, the Tangerines' early pressure paid off when former loanee Jack Payne crossed for Danns, who was allowed too much space to fire past a helpless Sam Sargeant.

With Orient offering nothing up front, with Tristan Abrahams ploughing a lone furrow, Blackpool piled on the pressure, but had to wait until 35 minutes when Cullen's daisy-cutter beat Sargeant from the edge of the penalty box.

With the points almost certainly in the bag, Blackpool's pressure relented. Henry Ochieng won the O's a free-kick. Sam Slocombe did well to push Callum Kennedy's wickedly curling 30-yarder around his near post two minutes from the break.

Sargeant kept the deficit down straight from the restart with a fine point-blank block to deny Brad Potts, before Ochieng replied with a long distance effort, that Slocombe had to watch.

The O's got a foothold on 50 minutes when the home defence switched off and allowed Janse a clear run at goal. The Dutchman – fed by Ochieng – kept his cool, drew Slocombe and side-footed home.

Trying to restore their two-goal advantage, Potts blazed over from eight yards on 56 minutes, before Kyle Vassell brought the best out of Sargeant with a rasping drive.

Any hopes of an Orient comeback were cruelly dashed on 65 minutes when skipper Taylor's angled, left-footed out-swinger was too good for Sargeant.

Vassell continued to knock at the Orient door with several late strikes, but found Sargeant in fine form, keeping the scoreline respectable.

Orient boss Omer Riza said: "Blackpool needed a win to secure a play-off place. They pressed us and we gave away a sloppy goal. At half-time and two-nil down, I couldn't be too harsh with the lads, as I felt I was treading on eggshells. But, we came back out, more than matched them, got our goal and looked to be getting back in the game, until a bit of slop-piness cost us."

Reflecting on the season, Riza concluded: "We can take positives, like the youngsters having played as many games as they have. The academy is also thriving, and the fans – who have been brilliant – have had lot to deal with."

Blackpool: Sam Slocombe, Kelvin Mellor, Andy Taylor (capt), Clark Robertson, Will Alinson, Kyle Vassell, Brad Potts (Jordan Flores 75'), Mark Cullen (Armand Granaudillet 80'), Tom Alfred, Jack Payne, Neil Danns (Ian Black 70'). Subs: Dean Lyness, Danny Phillips, Bright Osayi-Samuel, Nathan Delfouneso.

Local footy mourns Trinity founder Roy

By Brian Jeeves

TRIBUTES have been paid to Roy Plummer, founder of the Southend-based Trinity Football Club, who died suddenly at home, aged 70.

Having established the club in 1960, Mr Plummer played a huge role in ensuring that Trinity became one of the area's best-known clubs, offering organised football to players of all ages.

One-time Trinity player Stuart Leslie told Yellow Sport: "I first met Roy when I was seven years old playing football at Bourne Green Park. He offered me and my mates a big bar of chocolate each every Sunday morning if we would stand behind the goal cheering him on."

"After I signed for Trinity I realised what a genuinely lovely man he was. Nothing was ever too much trouble for him. He was always there to give advice or lend a hand. He raised so much money for charity through his sportsman evenings and I met some fantastic people thanks to him."

Mr Leslie added: "I actually cried when I received the call to tell me he had passed away. I only saw him the week before at a dinner with Alastair Cook for charity. Typical of Roy, still doing things for others right until the end."

"I will miss him so much and there are not many people you can say that about."

Another former Trinity man, Chris Leech, said: "I'm devastated. Roy was our 'Mr Football'. He did so much for the game in this area. A lot of people are going to miss him."

There were mixed fortunes for the region's clubs participating in National League play-off matches. Dagenham & Redbridge were held to a 1-1 draw in their first-leg tie with Forest Green Rovers at Victoria Road.

Forest Green grabbed the lead when Daggers' keeper Mark Cousins felled Omar Bugiel.

Liam Noble converted the spot-kick for the Gloucestershire outfit. But Dagenham ensured they travelled to the New Lawn ground on level terms when Jordan Maguire-Drew found the net shortly before the break.

But it was not to be the Daggers' year. First-half goals from former Daggers man Christian Doidge and one from Keanu Marsh-Brown ensured it was Forest Green who progressed to a Wembley final with Tranmere Rovers following a 2-0 success.

There was better news for National League South promotion hopefuls Chelmsford City.

The Clarets and Darts played out a tense goalless draw in front of a season's best crowd of 1,650 in the first leg at the Melbourne Stadium.

Another huge crowd of 2,622 turned out at Dartford's Princes Park to witness Chelmsford set up a final date with Ebbsfleet United thanks to second-half goals from Louie Theophanous and Chris Dickson. Duane Ofori Acheampong pulled one back for the hosts in stoppage time, but it was City who progressed.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Frenford Senior emphatically win their Premier Division clash at Bishop's Stortford Swifts by five goals to two.

Kelvedon Hatch were 3-1 winners over Buckhurst Hill, while Manford Way triumphed by the odd goal in three at Harold Wood Athletic.

Elsewhere in the Premier Division, Brett Munyard bagged a brace and Luke Skinner was also on target as White Ensign won 3-2 at May & Baker E.C. Meanwhile, Springfield were 4-1 winners over Harold Hill and Ross Webster scored the only goals at Rayleigh Town edged out Leigh Ramblers.

Division One champions Basildon Town slipped to a surprise defeat to AFC Shenfield at the Basildon Sports & Leisure Club.

Jack Main with the Town goal. Catholic United picked up maximum points with a 4-2 success over Old Chelmsfordians.
